Sixteenth Sunday of Pentecost – September 25, 2022 (8:30am)

Centering Words – (Psalm 91 and 1 Timothy 6:11-19)

But you, people of God, must shun the love of money and pursue justice, piety, integrity, love, fortitude, and gentleness. Run the great race of faith and take hold of eternal life, for to this you were called, when you confessed your faith nobly before many witnesses.

Call to Worship:

All those who live in the shelter of the Most High, and lodge under the shadow of the Almighty, says of the Lord,

‘He is our refuge and fortress, our God in whom we put all our trust.’

He will rescue you from the fowler’s snare and from deadly pestilence. Under the cover of His wings, you find refuge; His truth will be a shield.

We need not fear the terrors by night, nor arrows by day, neither pestilence in darkness nor plagues raging at noonday.

Let your love hold fast to God, your Deliverer knows you by name.

We call, He answers; He is with us. We have seen salvation!
